

Directions to Greater Homewood Community Corporation

Greater Homewood Community Corporation is located at 3503 North Charles Street; the Greater Homewood Adult Learning Center is located in the basement of University Baptist Church, 3501 North Charles Street. The buildings are just east of the Johns Hopkins University Homewood campus, at the intersection of Charles Street and Greenway.

By Car

From I-83, take the 28th Street exit east to Charles Street. Go seven blocks north on Charles Street* and turn right onto University Parkway. At the next light (St. Paul Street), make a sharp right onto Greenway. The University Baptist Church is a large, white building on the right, and the Literacy Program entrance is under the canopy near Charles Street. The main offices are across the small parking lot north of the church at 3503 N. Charles.

Two-hour parking is available on Greenway, and metered parking is available on University Parkway and St. Paul Street, as well as on the access road parallel to Charles Street (but it is rather narrow!).

* If physical limitations do not allow you to climb steps, turn right from Charles Street into the parking lot on the north side of the church. (Note: this street entrance is for dropping off passengers only; no lot parking is available). Follow the sidewalk signs to the building's accessible entrance.
